

Allan W. Agamaite

Allen W. Agamaite, age 77, of Washburn, Wisconsin, passed away on Monday, February 3, 2014, at the Memorial Medical Center, in Ashland, Wisconsin.

Al was born on December 19, 1936, in Green Bay, Wisconsin, the son of Norbert and Clara (Wolfmier) Agamaite. He was a U.S. Marine Corp veteran. He and Barbara J. Lindquist were united in marriage, in Washburn, on December 11, 1994. Al was a carpenter by trade and taught at many vocational schools across the state. He at one time owned and operated Mr. Bob's Bar in Ashland. He was a member of the Ashland Elks Lodge, in Ashland, for over 40 years; past Exalted Ruler; and past District Deputy for the Grand Lodge. Al enjoyed helping others and built many garages and other structures around the area.

Survivors include: his wife, Barb, of Washburn; sons: Andy, of Brule, Wisconsin; and Marty, of Madison, Wisconsin; his daughter: Kim Agamaite, of Chinook, Washington; grandchildren: Harley Bowe, Amanda and Taylor Agamaite; great-grandson: Thor Bowe; step children: Brenda (Chris) Lee of Mellen, Wisconsin; Gary (Mary Beth) Koebler, of Washburn; and Laura Anderson, of Rice Lake, Wisconsin; step-grandchildren: Elizabeth & Robert Lee, Michael & Cody Koebler and Mykayla & Lucas Anderson; his brother: James (Bea), of Great Mills, Maryland; his sister: Barbara Hogenson of Green Bay; many nieces and nephews.

Al was preceded in death by his parents.

A Going Away Party for Al will be held from 1 to 4 p.m., Saturday, March 1, 2014, at Messiah Lutheran Church, in Washburn. Reverend Nancy Hanson will officiate.

Interment will be private.
