

Clifford Brown

Clifford Brown 49, 3043 Leslie Lane, died Saturday at Luther Hospital.

He was born in Fairchild and married Ardelle Emery on Sept. 27, 1958 in Elk Mound. He was a U.W. Marine Corps veteran of the Korean War.

He served on the Eau Claire police force 18 years and during that time received a bachelor's degree from the University of Wisconsin-eau Claire and later a master's degree from UW-Stout. He taught police science at District One Technical Institute the past eight years.

He was a member of Trinity Lutheran Church council and was active in scouting, working as a Webelo master, Explorer advisor, district executive and camp committee chairman.

He received the district Silver Beaver award in March 1984. He was a past master of George B. Wheeler Lodge 351 of the Free and Accepted Masons and district deputy for the Grand Lodge of Wisconsin.

Survivors include his wife; one son, Jeff; one daughter, Jane, both at home; and three brothers, Russell, Memphis, Tenn., LaVerne, Milwaukee, Irving, Minneapolis.

Memorial services will be at 7 p.m. today at Trinity Lutheran Church following burial in Barum Cemetery, Elk Mound.

Friends may call from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. today at Fuller Funeral Home.

The family prefers memorials to District One Technical Institute or the Chippewa Valley Council Boy Scouts of America.

5 Nov 1984

EB
Leader
Telegram

aries

Clifford Brown

Clifford Brown, 49, 3043 Leslie Lane, died Saturday at Luther Hospital.

He was born in Fairchild and married Ardelle Emery on Sept. 27, 1958 in Elk Mound. He was a U.S. Marine Corps veteran of the Korean war. He served on the Eau Claire police force 16 years and during that time received a bachelor's degree from University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire, and later a master's degree from UW-Stout. He taught police science at District One Technical Institute the past eight years. He was a member of Trinity Lutheran Church council, and was active in scouting, working as a Webelo master, Explorer adviser, district executive and camp committee chairman. He received the district Silver Beaver award in March 1984. He was a past master of George B. Wheeler Lodge 351 of the Free and Accepted Masons, and district deputy for the Grand Lodge of Wisconsin.

Survivors include his wife; one son, Jeff; one daughter, Jane, both at home; and three brothers, Russell, Memphis, Tenn., LaVerne, Milwaukee, Irving, Minneapolis.

Memorial services will be at 7 p.m. today at Trinity Lutheran Church following burial in Barum Cemetery, Elk Mound.

Friends may call from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. today at Fuller Funeral Home.

The family prefers memorials to District One Technical Institute, or the Chippewa Valley Council, Boy Scouts of America.