From Kay:

Just to let you know that former nursing instructor, Gayle Murphy, passed away on May 30th from a cancerous thymus tumor that she had struggled with for several years. She passed away in her apartment with her husband, Lemar Murphy, and a hospice nurse by her side. She was 65. A private service was already completed. There will not be an obituary.

If people would like to leave a condolence, they can do so by snail mail or email at these addresses:
