

Raymond Joseph Loer

Raymond Loer

Raymond J. Loer, 56, of 2213 Trimble St., died Monday at Sacred Heart Hospital.

The Red Wing, Minn., native married Irene Hanisch Nov. 7, 1942, in Wichita Falls, Tex. He was graduated from Stout State University in 1941. A World War II veteran, he lived in Durand from 1950 to 1960 and taught civil engineering at Eau Claire Technical Institute from 1968 to the present.

Survivors include his wife;; three sons, Steven, Torrance, Calif., Michael and Mark, both of Eau Claire; three brothers, Russell, Red Wing, Minn., Edwin, Modesto, Calif., Clarence, Stillwater, Minn.; a sister, Gladys Loer, Modesto, Calif.

Services will be 1 p.m. Thursday at Peace Lutheran Church with burial in Rest Haven Gardens, both Eau Claire.

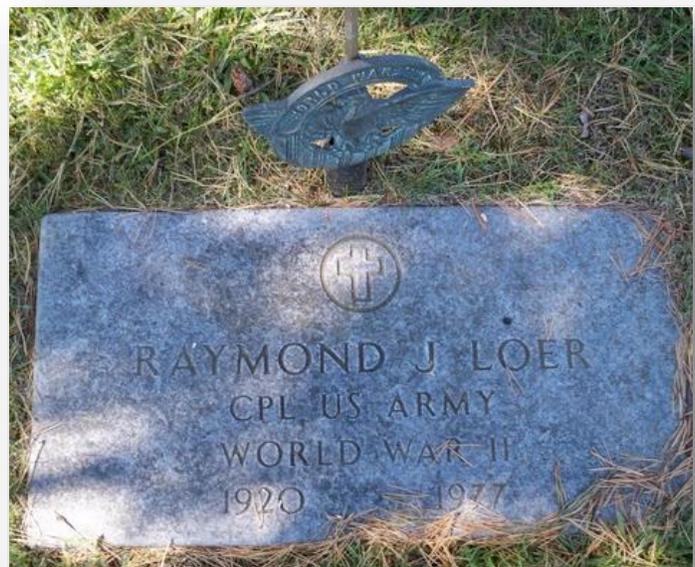

Friends may call at Stokes and Sons Funeral Chapel Wednesday from 4 p.m. to 9 p.m. and Thursday morning and one hour before services at the church.

BIRTH: 20 Apr 1920
Red Wing, Goodhue County,
Minnesota, USA

DEATH: 14 Mar 1977 (aged 56)
Wisconsin, USA

BURIAL: Rest Haven Cemetery
Washington, Eau Claire County,
Wisconsin, USA

MEMORIAL ID 79821179

Fifth Row: Clifford Moe, Paul Pagel, Howard Daher, Sherwood Spreiter, Darby Worman, Claude Howard, Tony DeChiara.

Fourth Row: Robert Formoe, Rex Merriman, Nick Milinovich, Robert Maidl, Donald Hansen, Leverett Hinkel, Donald Hintzman, Art Otteson.

Third Row: Earl Morrison, Merton Jessel, Norman Running, Paul Schwartz, Pat Murphy, William Odell, Lester Reynolds, Ingmar Barbo.

Second Row: Ray Loer, Delmar Owens, Robert McKay, Coach Ray Johnson, Mr. Price, Adviser; Garnett Nobiensky, Donald Miller, William Hansen, James Peterman, Edward Stanfel.

Front Row: George Alt, John Richter, Everett Bolduc, Eilert Moldenhauer, Earl Beckman, Wallace Johnson, Paul Bailey, Gerald Bassler.

"S" Club: Stout's huskiest athletes, men who have won at least one letter in a major sport, are members of the "S" Club. "The Stout Code of Sportsmanship," formulated by this club, is intended to create and stimulate sportsmanship at intercollegiate athletic contests and to establish closer athletic relationships between Stout and its rival colleges. To its graduating senior members who have won two or more letters in any one major sport the "S" Club awards the official "S" jacket.