

Robert Carroll Loughan

Robert Carroll Loughan, a devoted brother, husband, father, grandfather, great grand father and respected member of the community, passed away on Wednesday, March 20, 2024. Surrounded by the love of his family, he peacefully departed from his winter home in San Juan, Texas. He was born on October 27, 1951 in La Crosse, Wisconsin to Emmett and Evelyn (Gleason) Loughan.

Bob was a remarkable individual who made an impact in various aspects of his life. As an instructor at Chippewa Valley Technical College, he passionately shared his knowledge and inspired countless students. Prior to that role, Bob drove semi for several companies and also served with the Army National Guard as a Combat Engineer for the 32nd Engineer Company from 1970 to 1976. His dedication earned him the prestigious Write Medal in both 1973 and 1974 and the Order of the Arrow from the Boy Scouts of America.

An adventurer at heart, Bob cherished his time riding his motorcycle through all but one state in America and even ventured into two countries. He had a knack for building things and took pride in constructing a beautiful cabin in Wisconsin while also remodeling his home in Texas. Additionally, he nurtured an orchard with passion and care.

Bob's work history showed his unwavering commitment as a Semi Truck Driver to provide for his family. His intelligence and hardworking nature were evident throughout every endeavor he pursued. A loyal Green Bay Packer fan until the end—his enthusiasm for football brought joy to those around him.

On October 7, 1972 Bob married the love of his life Sue (Anderson) Loughan—a union filled with love and laughter that lasted over five decades. Together they embarked on many adventures while sharing their mutual appreciation for nature;

Bob often took delight in surprising loved ones with critters in unexpected locations.

Bob leaves behind a lasting legacy within the hearts of those who survive him: Sue (Anderson), his beloved wife; their daughter Angela (Scott) Kunkel; son Anthony Loughan; grandson Austin Loughan-Hays; grand daughter Krystal (Cody) Brown, great grand daughter Juniper Brown, brother Raymond (Caryll) Loughan; sister Corinne (David) Snyder; and many sister and brother-in laws, nieces, nephews and very dear friends.

He is preceded in death by his parents Emmett and Evelyn (Gleason) Loughan but will forever remain alive within cherished memories held dear by all who knew him.

Bob's incredible life journey filled with love, dedication, adventure, and unwavering loyalty to family will be remembered & celebrated on Sunday, May 19, 2024, at Chippewa Valley Cremation Services – Celebration of Life Center in Altoona. Family & friends are invited to gather from 12-2 p.m. and stay for the service beginning at 2 p.m.

Chippewa Valley Cremation Services – Celebration of Life Center in Altoona is serving Bob's family.

Obituary for: Robert C. Loughan \(google.com\) - includes slideshow